
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

PAUL G. AMANN,

Plaintiff,

v.

OFFICE OF THE UTAH ATTORNEY
GENERAL, SEAN REYES, BRIDGET ROMANO, and TYLER GREEN, in their official and individual capacities,

Defendants.

MEMORANDUM DECISION & ORDER
DENYING DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE CASES

Case No. 2:22-cv-00753-JNP-DAO

District Judge Jill N. Parrish

Before the court is Defendants' Motion to Consolidate the above captioned matter with Case No. 2:18-cv-00341, which is currently pending before the court. ECF No. 31. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42(a), a court may consolidate cases if the actions "involve a common question of law or fact." The above captioned matter concerns a motion to order Wanda Amann ("Mrs. Amann") to comply with a subpoena relating to Case No. 2:18-cv-00341. Mrs. Amann is the wife of the plaintiff, Mr. Amann, in that case, but she is not a party. Case No. 2:18-cv-00341 stems from Defendants' alleged wrongful termination of Mr. Amann in 2016. Mrs. Amann's compliance with the subpoena does not relate to questions of law or fact regarding Mr. Amann's termination. Accordingly, Defendants' motion is DENIED.

DATED September 27, 2024

BY THE COURT

A handwritten signature in purple ink that reads "Jill N. Parrish". The signature is fluid and cursive, with "Jill" and "N." on the first line and "Parrish" on the second line.

Jill N. Parrish

United States District Court Judge